REPORT OF IQAC 2013-14

Gandhi Shikshan Bhavan's Smt Surajba College of Education in its IQAC forum had decided to have Quality Indicator as bringing out SOCIAL EQUALITY AMONGST THE SOCIETY for the year 2013-14. It was decided aptly because it is one of the aspect of our institutional philosophy also. Our philosophy explicitly and overtly believes that there has to be more equality in society that peace and serenity remains in society. Equal opportunity remedies past discrimination, fights present-day discrimination, and promotes diversity in our society. There is also a strong economic argument for equality. If people are not able to reach their full potential, the economy suffers.

Social equality is generally equated with the notion of equality or equal opportunity in society. Although equality is undeniably part of social justice, the meaning of social justice is actually much broader (Scherlen and Robinson, 2008). Further, "equal opportunity" and similar phrases such as "personal responsibility" have been used to diminish the prospective for realizing social justice by justifying enormous inequalities in modern society (Berry, 2005). The most recent theories of and scholarly statements about social justice illustrate the complex nature of the concept.

We are working toward a fairer society by improving equality and reducing discrimination and disadvantage for all, at work, in public and political life, and in people's life chances.

So we did the following to achieve the QUALITY INDICATORS for year 2013-14 following activities were organized:

Sr No	Program	Objective
1	Equitable society with Equal Opportunity : NATIONAL SEMINAR	1. Create Sensitivity 2. Deliberate some measures to reduce the gap between groups and society
2.	AMAN SETU: Building Bridges Across the Heart	1. Understanding the aspect of Peace in providing equality 2 . Ensuring the role of various agencies in promoting peace
3.	EXHIBITION ON EQUALITY	1. Familiarizing the society with the concept of equality. 2. Developing inner talent of the student teacher

4.	4 DAYS RURAL CAMP	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.Sensitizing the student teachers with different dimension of EQUALITY 2.Develop psychomotor ability to perform physical activities to develop empathy for less fortunate people.
4.	Screening of FILMS: SUJATA and TAREY ZAMEEN PAY	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Discuss and deliberate on issues of Equality 2. Understand the strategies of developing EQUALITY
5.	EXTENSION ACTIVITIES	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.Student should be able to develop Programs to sensitize the school children towards Equality 2.Understand the responsibility of teacher towards the society

Beside this there were many activities organized through daily teaching learning activities. Also the entire ANNUAL PROGRAM of this year was focused on the aspect of Equality. The Guest Faculty was invited to talk about Peace and Equality. Dr Ram Punyani, Dr Sudha Mohan and Dr Gautam Gawali spoke on the aspect of equality and gave theoretically various aspect of Equality.

The IQAC was in the entire year active, alert and focused to ensure that the quality indicator was always in the focus and all the activities were geared and planned accordingly.

Not to forget the four MANDATORY MEETINGS that were organized at regular interval to keep a check on the various activity. It indeed benefitted the entire college and all its member in various ways. The IQAC also was able to do a lot of behavioural changes in the students and the staff because of the focused attention given to the quality parameter.

The debate over equality of opportunity opens onto core political and theoretical questions, including the delineation of public and private domains, individual versus group identity, and the possibility of impartial standards. At stake in this debate are shared concerns with legitimating and transforming political institutions, negotiating competing social values, and cultivating practices of social justice. Indeed, it was a very fruitful endeavour.
